VFW POST GETS OPTION TO BUY BUEHLER HOME

Gettysburg Post No. 15 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars today announced the purchase of an option to buy the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, 249 Carlisle street, as a community service center and home for Veterans, and a $25,000 public subscription quota for the purchase and equipment of the home and service to veterans and their families.

As part of its public campaign for funds to finance its community service plan for veterans and to defray the cost of purchase and maintenance of the home, the veterans have designated the first week in July as "V.F.W. Week" and the Fourth of July as "V.F.W. Booster Day."

To Recognize Donors

All citizens who contribute more than $25 to the organization composed of veterans of overseas service and their women's auxiliary will have their names engraved upon a bronze plaque to be set in a place of honor on the wall of the new post home.

Tentative plans were also announced for a recruiting car to be located in center square on Flag Day and at other times to be announced later for the purpose of registering new members and members of the Auxiliary which is to be organized at the home of Clyde Berger, 339 Carlisle street, at a meeting Monday evening. Wives, mothers and sisters of the Veterans throughout the county are invited to attend. All women related to servicemen in the organization or serving overseas are urged to attend whether or not they have been contacted. Two members of the Auxiliary of the Hanover post of the V.F.W. will be present to aid in the establishment of the organization.

Benefit Parties

Plans were also announced for a series of benefit entertainments and other social activities including a carnival to be held at a later date as part of the V.F.W. drive.

The post has also announced plans for a memorial plaque to be engraved with the names of all men from Adams county who have given their lives in the war.

CHARLES PITZER ENDING SERVICE

Capt. Charles Pitzer, a former Gettysburg resident, was put on inactive status and given an extended leave until August 6 at Ft. Dix, N. J., Tuesday after which he will be discharged from the service.

Capt. Pitzer, a graduate of Gettysburg high school with the class of 1934, has served two enlistments in the armed forces. He enlisted in November, 1935, and was discharged on April 2, 1938. He re-enlisted February 26, 1942.

As a pilot and flight leader with the 12th Air Force he took part in the invasions of Sicily and Italy by dropping paratroops and gliders. Later he was transferred to the 9th Air Force in England and participated in the invasions of France and Holland.

He served overseas 20 months and has a total of 1,060 combat hours of flying to his credit. Capt. Pitzer wears the air medal with three clusters, the American Defense Ribbon and the ETO campaign ribbon with six stars.

Capt. Pitzer's wife, the former Mary Arnold, resides in Emmitsburg.

GHS GRADUATION FRIDAY NIGHT

The 1945 graduating class of Gettysburg high school will hold its commencement exercises at the high school auditorium Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college will deliver the commencement address.

The program will include music by the high school orchestra, the senior class choir, instrumental solos by members of the student body and readings and addresses by members of the graduating class.

The speaker of the evening will be introduced by Guile W. Lefever, principal of the high school, who will present the diplomas.

The Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, who delivered this year's baccalaureate sermon Sunday, will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

LETTERS OF ESTATE

A letter of administration has been granted by Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner to Mrs. Lulu M. Fisel in the estate of her late husband, Calvin D. Fisel.

Wounded

Pvt. Ralph Kopman, Jr., who was wounded May 10 while fighting with the First Marine Division on Okinawa, is now in a Naval hospital where he expects to be confined for several months with a leg injury. His father, Ralph Kopman, resides near New Oxford.

SAINT JOSEPH'S GIVES DEGREES TO 29 SENIORS

Miss Mary Catherine Heltzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Heltzel, Gettysburg R. D., and Miss Gloria Cardenti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cardenti, 327 Hanover street, were among 29 young women who were graduated with the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science this afternoon at St. Joseph's college at Emmitsburg.

The exercises were conducted at 3 o'clock with His Excellency, the Most Reverend John M. McNamara, D.D., auxiliary bishop of Baltimore and Washington, presiding and delivering the principal address.

The valedictory address was delivered by Miss Regina Helen Acton of Syracuse, N. Y. The conferring of degrees and awarding of certificates of honor followed.

The Carrell (Jenkins Memorial) prize for general excellence, the highest honor given members of the graduating class by the college, went to Miss Heltzel "for general excellence." On July 15 Miss Heltzel will enter the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., for a year of interne work as a dietitian.

Other Honors

The Seton prize went to Mary Elizabeth Flanagan while Miss Acton won the Very Rev. Louis Delouil prize and the Kalbach award. The prize for journalism went to Mary Julia Fitzgerald. The scholastic excellence award for students in the A.B. course was won by Alexandria Lyon Dengate. The Archbishop Curley competitive awards were won as follows: Oratorical, Miss Virginia Marie Erdmann; radio program contest, Miss Mary Ann Kenner and foods, Miss Helen Marie Frailey.

The Bachelor of Arts degree went to: Miss Acton, Miss Dengate, Mary Anne Farmer and Eileen Mary Rodgers.

The Bachelor of Science degree was conferred upon: Ada Baez, Miss Cardenti, Norma Marie Day, Dolores Maria del Castillo, Colette Mary Deller, Margaret Anne Dempsey, Miss Erdmann, Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Flanagan, Regina Marie Flood, Carmen Ana Flores, Miss Frailey, Jane Ganster, Ann Maria Gonzalez, Jacqueline Pauline Greco, Marie Therese Hamilton, Miss Heltzel, Elizabeth Izziary, Frances Estelle Joiner, Catherine Helen Keegan, Margaret Anna Motta, Eileen Josepha Norris, Agnes Theresa Ratas, Marian Sheridan and Isabelle Zapata.

Cpl. Ridinger In Labor Control Work

Cpl. John D. Ridinger, son of Mrs. Lottie Ridinger, East Middle street, is now stationed in Antwerp, Belgium, doing labor control work with German civilians.

Cpl. Ridinger, who was wounded January 28, 1944, in Italy, worked in the shipping department of his outfit in preparation for the invasion of southern France. At Digin, France, he worked in the rail yards, receiving and shipping equipment for which he received a commendation signed by five officers. At Marseille, France, he was in labor control for the depot where 4,000 German prisoners were quartered. Later he was moved to Herentols, Belgium to do rigging for loading equipment. From there he was sent to Antwerp.

SALE OF BONDS NEAR $400,000 MARK IN COUNTY

Sale of war bonds, series E, to individuals in Adams county continue to lag with a little more than three weeks remaining in the "Mighty Seventh" war loan campaign to sell $700,000.

Today's total sales are reported at $377,488, slightly more than one-half of the county quota.

The unsold balance of the quota is approximately $323,000 which must be sold during the next 24 working days (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) if Adams county is to attain its quota.

There is some encouragement in the fact that Adams county is running about four per cent ahead of the state as a whole.

Chairman E. W. Thomas, of the County War Finance committee, today appealed to all volunteer workers and issuing agencies to extend their efforts during the remaining days of the drive.

Individual Contacts

"If we are to reach our quota it will require the concentrated efforts of every volunteer worker and issuing agency during the remaining days of the drive. Every individual in the county should be contacted and every effort should be made to sell extra bonds to each individual," said Chairman Thomas.

Additional names on the active service honor rolls were announced today by the Women's division as follows:

Cpl. Robert M. Reindollar, Francis D. Shultz, Pfc. George D. Dear-dorf, Pvt. Joseph Sanders, John A. Roser, Sgt. Ray O. Staley, Pvt. Robert Schriver, Maurice D. Eckenrode and Pfc. Charles D. Kizer.

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—Pennsylvania has reached 48.8 per cent of its $288,000,000 quota in the sale of E bonds during the Seventh War Loan drive. C. Ruhland Rebmann, Jr., chairman of the state War Finance committee, announced today.

Sales of E bonds through Tuesday totaled $140,500,000, a 24-hour increase of $4,700,000, he said.

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Sales of E bonds in the 7th War Loan totaled $2,070,000,000 today or 52 per cent of the $4,000,000,000 quota.

Total individual purchases amount to $4,398,000,000 or 62 per cent of the $7,000,000,000 quota.

The drive ends June 30.

ENEMY GUNNER HIT PVT. BENDER

The 162nd General Hospital, England—Wounded by enemy machine-gun bullets as his armored infantry company fought to take a town near Kassel, Germany, Private Crawford L. Bender, 22, of Bendersville, Pennsylvania, is now recovering at this United States Army general hospital in England. He has been awarded the Purple Heart.

His ward surgeon, Captain Alexi N. Berk, of New York city, said, "Pvt. Bender is making very satisfactory progress, but will require further treatment before going to duty."

"I was riding in a half-track when it was hit by a shell from a Jerry tank," he said. "I got off to take cover, and was hit in the right wrist and left shoulder by a blast of machine-gun fire."

Pvt. Bender was treated by a medic and taken to the battalion aid station. He was operated upon at an evacuation hospital and flown to England.

His wife, Marie, lives in Bendersville. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Bender, of Newburg, Pennsylvania. He entered the army in July, 1944, and was trained at Camp Croft, South Carolina. Pvt. Bender has two brothers in the army, Earl, 26, is in the infantry in Germany, and Sam, 24, is in the Medical Department in France.

Cpl. Roger Gebhart Is Given Discharge

Cpl. Roger Gebhart returned Wednesday evening to his home near Bonneauville after being discharged at Ft. Dix, N. J., on the point system. He had a total of 120 points.

Cpl. Gebhart, a son of Thomas Gebhart, enlisted and entered the service on August 20, 1940. He received his training at Langley Field, Va., and was transferred to Hawaii in March, 1941. He was there during the attack on Pearl Harbor. Later he was transferred to the south Pacific where he remained until last January when he was sent to a camp at Great Bend, Kansas.

In France

Capt. Henry M. Hartman, Jr., an officer of the 66th Infantry Division, wears a bronze service star on his EAME ribbon for participation in the battle for Northern France. Now in France, the officer, 36-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Hartman, Springs avenue, has been in Europe 10 months. He went abroad after a brief assignment in the states following two and a half years in Puerto Rico.

His wife, the former Miss Dorothy Harrison, and their 14-month-old daughter are visiting here with the Hartmans.

LT. JAMES SMITH WEDS IN FLORIDA

First Lt. James A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Smith, Chambersburg street, and a decorated veteran of duty with the Eighth Air Force, was married last Saturday to Miss Mary Lee Raines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Raines, Miami, Fla.

The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in the Riverside Baptist church.

The bride wore a street length white dress and an orchid corsage. Her maid of honor, Miss Madelyn Smith, a sister of the bridegroom, wore aqua blue with white accessories and a rosebud corsage.

The best man was Lt. Frank Mitchell and the ushers: Capt. Norman Shroder and Lt. Robert Towell, all of Boca Raton Air Field, where Lieutenant Smith also is stationed. Following the wedding there was a reception at the home of the bride.

The couple is residing at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Lieutenant Smith is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1941. He entered service the following April and won the Air Medal with Oak Leaf clusters for his bombing flights from English bases over Germany and occupied countries.

The bride attended high school at High Springs, Fla., and the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee.

Sgt. Samuel Reeve Granted Return Home

With the First U. S. Infantry Division in Czechoslovakia—Sgt. Samuel J. Reeve, son of Mrs. Edna Reeve, of Gettysburg, Pa., R. 2, was among the first veterans of the European Theatre to be granted return to the United States under the present War Department redeployment plan.

S. Sgt. Reeve has served overseas for 33 months. He participated in the North African, Sicilian, French, Belgium and German campaigns. In addition he has made amphibious landings in North Africa, Sicily and Normandy. He helped repel the Nazis' Ardennes offensive; then swept across the Roer and Rhine rivers fighting and pursuing the Germans until their armies were totally destroyed. His tour of overseas duty came to an end in Czechoslovakia where he had been a member of the division that had fired the first and last shots of the European War, "The Fighting First."

Sgt. Reeve has been awarded the following decorations: Silver Star, Bronze Star Medal, Presidential Unit Citation, and six campaign stars.

Property Transfers

David E. Starry, York Springs, sold two lots in that borough to Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Starry.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer B. Newman, Littlestown, sold a property there to Albert L. Brookhouse, of Littlestown.

James Sillik, of Biglerville, sold a tract of seven acres in Butler township for $12,000 to the C. H. Musselman Company, of Biglerville. Jennie M. House, Bendersville, sold four tracts in that community to L. W. Kuhn, of Bendersville.

LOCAL SOLDIER TELLS OF PART IN INVASION

Pfc. James Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diehl, 152 North Stratton street, a member of the 393rd Quartermaster Gas Supply Company, now in France, in a recent letter to his parents, reveals the part played by his outfit in the invasion of Europe.

Excerpts from his letter follow:

"When we left Camp Forrest, Tenn., we went to Camp Miles Standish, Mass. We were there about two weeks. From there we went to Boston, Mass., from where we sailed on November 5, 1943. Fifteen days later we arrived at Grenock, Scotland. We were chucked all over the Atlantic by 'Jerry' subs but the whole convoy arrived safely. I didn't get sea sick at all but plenty of boys did. In all, the trip wasn't too bad.

"From Grenock we took a train to Liverpool, England. We stayed there for about two weeks. All we did was eat, sleep and go to Liverpool on passes where we had nice times. From Liverpool we went to Hereford, England. We stayed there about four months and lived in Nissen huts. They weren't too bad. From Hereford we moved to southern England or which is called Cornwall, England. At that time it was the training area for all American troops going on the invasion. When you got down there you never got back to any other part of England again. We lived in a castle for the first time.

Six Ships Sunk

"After about a month there we moved to another castle on a 10,000 acre estate called Trelowan castle. What a place! There were only 128 of us on the whole place. While living there we went on amphibious maneuvers. That was in April, 1944. We left Plymouth, England, on April 20. There were eight LST's loaded with men and equipment. We didn't know if we were really going on the invasion then or not. We sailed around the English channel until the night of April 22. At 2:30 a. m. all hell broke loose.

"We were attacked by 'Jerry' E boats. There was one LST boat about 100 yards back of us. She took a torpedo midships and blew in half. You could see men, trucks and everything else flying through the air and could hear men screaming. It was hell. There were eight ships that left Plymouth and only two that came back. That was my first taste of war and I will never forget it. What made it so bad was that it was only maneuvers and not the real invasion. After this experience we went back to Trelowan and stayed a few more weeks. We later were sent to a marshalling area for two weeks during which we just ate, slept and attended movies. One day

Flees From Squire's Office; Recaptured

Dashing from the office of Magistrate S. M. Kohler, Fayetteville, while receiving a hearing on three charges of violating the motor code, Francis Paul Shultz, 18, fled across fields and mountain land to his home near Cashtown, only to be re-arrested by state police. He paid fines and costs totaling $45.

Shultz had been arrested by a member of the Gettysburg sub-station in Greene township, Franklin county, and the case was turned over to the Chambersburg sub-station, who filed two charges of driving an automobile without an operator's license and a charge of reckless driving. It was during the hearing on these charges that Shultz fled.

Airport On Okinawa Seized; Climax Of Battle Is In Sight

By LEIF ERICKSON

Guam, June 7 (AP)—The "final end" of the battle for Okinawa is in sight, largely because Americans perfected a defense against kamikaze (suicide) planes, Tokyo's press and radio admitted today as American headquarters announced capture of the big Naha airport and further compressing of the remaining Nipponese garrison.

U. S. 10th Army engineers moved swiftly toward conversion of the Naha airdrome into another effective base for air strikes against Japan, 325 miles to the north. The field, a prime objective of the 68-day campaign, was taken over yesterday by Sixth Division Marines.

Japanese Domei news agency reported from its own correspondents the imminent end of Rising Sun strength on Okinawa with "the war situation gradually becoming more disadvantageous to our side."

Use Rocket Ships

"Further," Domei added, "the enemy has been effectively employing rocket ships and planes, which have checked our special attack (kamikaze) corps aircraft from getting to their target." Kamikaze pilots have sunk 13 American ships and damaged 45 at Okinawa.

The remaining 15,000 Japanese on Okinawa were squeezed into a 25 square mile area at the southern tip of the island, where they apparently planned a final suicide stand.

Completion of the overrunning of Naha airdrome was announced in Admiral Chester W. Nimitz' communique which reported wide advances through the southern end of the muddy rain-swept island.

Associated Press Correspondent Vern Haugland, with Maj. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr.'s Sixth Marine Division, said the Fourth Regiment which captured the airdrome found borders of the field strewn with wrecked Japanese planes of all types.

Take Small Island

"The airdrome was grown over with grass during the three or more months it was inoperational," he wrote, "but it won't take a great deal of work or time—by American massive scale construction methods—to make it considerably more than the major Ryukyuan air base it used to be."

Naha airdrome, the main Japanese stop in ferrying planes to Formosa, the Philippines, East Indies, South China and Malaya, was half seized Monday in an amphibious hop across Naha harbor by the Leathernecks.

On Tuesday they cleaned out enemy strongpoints and yesterday they took full possession.

The Marines also captured a small island immediately west of the airdrome and then moved swiftly southeastward toward a juncture with Maj. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle's First Marine Division, shooting down the center of the island.

Naha harbor already was being readied for American use.

Corp. Jack Liller Killed In Pacific

Corp. Jack Liller, aged about 32, formerly of Gettysburg, was killed in action in the Pacific on April 18, his mother, Mrs. Nettie Liller, Detroit, has been notified by the War Department.

Liller, who moved to Detroit from Gettysburg several years ago and was employed there before entering the armed forces about two years ago, served in an infantry division and is believed to have been killed on Okinawa.

Surviving in addition to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Liller, of Detroit, are his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman Liller and a son, Joey, Chambersburg street. Several sisters also survive.

BELIEVES REDS WILL JOIN IN FIGHTING JAPS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

One of the questions most often asked me by readers of this column, as the Allies close in on Japan, is whether Russia is going to join us in crushing the brigands of the Pacific.

That's not an easy query to answer in view of the fact that there has been no official pronouncement for guidance, either from Moscow or the other Allied capitals. Marshal Stalin as usual has been exemplifying his nickname of "the Sphinx" by playing his cards close to his chest. For this reason any guess as to whether the Soviet Union will make war on Japan must be based on two things—logic and significant trends.

On both counts, as I see it, the probabilities are that the Muscovites will come into the war.

Logical Answer

When? Well, the bulk of their fighting strength in all categories is in European Russia. We must allow time for the shifting of much of this strength to far-off Siberia—a titanic undertaking. It might be several months before Moscow felt sufficiently well set—perhaps late summer or autumn.

That's the way things stand now, but right here we should take cognizance of this fact: A trend is like a new-born river; if it encounters a major obstacle it is diverted from its course. That is to say, there's no guarantee that the present picture won't change, although there is no sign of any shift at this writing.

The first item to substantiate my belief that Russia will fight Japan is one of logic. Looking at the thing purely from the standpoint of self-interest, it's to the advantage of the Soviet Union (or so it strikes me) not only to see Nippon knocked out but to have a hand in the job.

A Challenge to Reds

Japan's whole grandiose war-scheme of establishing a new order in East Asia under her domination is a direct challenge to every Russian interest in the Orient—territorial, political and economic. And this program is the culmination of a long series of aggressive acts against Russia, dating back to the Russo-Japanese war of 1904-05.

As a result of her defeat in that war Russia had to cede to the Japanese her rights to the strategic naval base of Port Arthur, and important interests in Manchuria. The Japs also got half of the big island of Sakhalin. Tokyo annexed Korea, and extended her hold on Manchuria until finally in 1931 she took over that great country outright.

Then came a steady procession of Japanese threats against Russian Siberia. Finally the Japs overran part of China and then, when Russia and the Western Allies were heavily involved in a life-or-death war with Germany, the Mikado's war-lords launched their assault on America and the other United Nations with the object of overrunning all East Asia.

Significant Trends

Of the recent trends, the one which seems to me to be most conclusive is Japan's own attitude of fear that Russia is about to declare war. We see this exhibited in the way Nippon is reported rushing troops from southern China northward toward the Soviet border. This is accompanied by a naive and very expressive chatter by Tokyo spokesmen about what great pals Japan and Russia are.

Another significant trend was Moscow's denunciation of the Soviet-Japanese neutrality pact on April of this year. In making this move Russia pointed out that "Japan is fighting against U. S. A. and Great Britain, which are the Allies of the Soviet Union," and that the pact thus "has lost its meaning and the continuance of this pact has become impossible." Previously, in November of 1944, Marshal Stalin had publicly described Japan as "an aggressive nation."

On May 18 of this year Moscow newspapers prominently displayed a letter to Stalin from the people of northern Sakhalin island (Russia's half) on the twentieth anniversary of "liberation from Japanese occupationists." The general implication of the letter seemed to be that the northerners wanted all Sakhalin returned to Russia.

Allied Council In Berlin Breaks

London, June 7 (AP)—A hint that the site of the next "Big Three" parley already had been set was given Commons, as one report that the first meeting of the delegates to the Allied Control Council in Berlin had "ended abruptly" created new anxiety here.

Without elaboration, Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir John Anderson told Commons there was "no chance" that the Big Three would meet in London, leaving the suggestion that a site had been selected. Meanwhile, fresh concern arose also over the situation in Austria.

Gen. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Montgomery left soon after the Berlin meeting without attending a Russian banquet, saying they had to return to their headquarters yesterday evening.

The first brief Berlin meeting of U. S., British, Russian, and French delegates left unsettled details concerning the organization of the Allied Control Council and how it will govern Germany.

Girls Who Abducted Babe Get Hearing

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—A hearing is scheduled for today to decide whether two grammar school girls will be tried in juvenile court or in the court of common pleas in connection with the abduction of Thomas Valentine Ripley, Jr., 3, found dead in a vacant lot last Thursday.

Both girls, Irene Jones, 15, and her sister, Janet, 11, will appear at the hearing.

Under the statutes of Pennsylvania, children from seven to 14, are considered capable of committing a crime, but the state must prove the child's responsibility; after the age of 14, a child charged with a crime must prove his own innocence.

Detectives will hear testimony of investigating officers and the report of psychiatrists who examined the girls.

The dead infant's mother, Mrs. Barbara Ripley will also attend the hearing.

Calls For Probe Of UNRRA Activities

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Rep. Thomas (R-N. J.), today called for a Congressional investigation of UNRRA. He termed the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration "the focal point for the Communist party in the United States."

Thomas said in an interview he would ask the House Committee on Un-American Activities, of which he is ranking minority member, to make the investigation.

The law-maker disclosed at the same time that the committee, set up as the permanent successor to the old Dies committee, will begin hearings June 20 to investigate what he termed "the dissemination of Communist propaganda" by an employee of the New York OPA office.

Woman Fatally Burned In Shack

Lock Haven, Pa., June 7 (AP)—Mrs. Alice Homer Corman, 52, was fatally burned in a one-room shack here, Chief of Police M. J. Peters said today, before neighbors could break down a locked door to rescue her.

Peters said two neighbors broke down the door yesterday and found the woman with her clothing in flames after they were attracted to the scene by her screams and smoke pouring from a window. She died later in a hospital.

"She told us before she died that she got up and tried to light a lamp and did not remember anything after that," Peters said. The police chief added that the woman told of-ficers she had gone to the shack with a man who lived there.

URGES SUPPORT FOR PRESIDENT

Manhattan, Kas., June 7 (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee in 1936, called on Americans today to give their united support to President Truman "as he faces his crucial negotiations with Stalin and Churchill."

"We cannot merely attempt with fine words to sit on the lid of explosive forces now working in the world," the former Kansas governor told the Manhattan Rotary club. "Our leadership depends on the vigor, soundness and unity with which we exercise it."

"The world is watching not only what our President does, but how we support his foreign policies." At the same time Landon said, America is failing to build a bridge of cooperation for peace in "our emotional approach to the problem of world peace and of Russia."

"The illusion current among many people that all we have to do is to follow the course charted from Moscow to Yalta is a dangerous fallacy that contributes to the difficulties of a satisfactory solution," the former Kansas governor said.

Condemned Man Is Given Life Term

Louisville, Ky., June 7 (AP)—Un-moved by an eleventh hour Presidential reprieve from the electric chair, kidnaper Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., found himself right back where he was nine years ago—headed for a life term in the federal penitentiary.

President Harry S. Truman yesterday commuted Robinson's death sentence to life imprisonment in Alcatraz. The White House intervention, on recommendation of Attorney General Francis Biddle, came less than 48 hours before the 37-year-old former law student was scheduled to die in the electric chair at the Kentucky state penitentiary.

His crime was the kidnapping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, wealthy Louisville society matron, in 1934 and holding her at Indianapolis for $50,000 ransom. The sentence, pronounced in federal court here, later was affirmed by the United States Supreme court.

Protests Cut In Hotel Food

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—Protesting an OPA order slashing hotel and restaurant supplies of rationed food-stuffs during July and August, Thomas E. Troy, president of the Pittsburgh Hotel association, said today "all it is going to do is to make more food available for those who already have it—the black marketers."

Troy, also general manager of the William Penn hotel, asked the OPA to study menus to determine who is serving food honestly and who is not.

"The national advisory committee of the food industry already has proved to OPA that the housewife gets more points than the restaurant does per customer," Troy stated.

At his own hotel, Troy said, meat was served at only one of 18 meals in a six-day period. He commented: "Patrons come in, look at the menu, and walk out. They know where they can go and get meat."

The OPA cut amounts to 20 per cent on meat, 12 to 15 per cent on canned vegetables and fruits, and 20 to 25 per cent on sugar.

what I want. We have several fellows from Philadelphia and Hershey in our outfit and they, too, thoroughly enjoy reading The Times."

Greater production of pulp-wood for V-boxes, shell containers, bomb bands and fiber drums, and of lumber for wooden containers, is urgently needed for prosecution of the war against Japan, the Forest Products Bureau of the War Production Board said today.

Pointing out that fiber container requirements have been increased for the third quarter over the second quarter of 1945 by 159,287 tons, and that with reconversion on the way, further increases in the third quarter are indicated, Benton R. Cancell, director of the Forest Products Bureau, said:

"Victory in Europe has actually stepped up forest products requirements for military use in the Pacific."

As direct evidence of the volume of this material now needed, Mr. Cancell said that over 72,000,000 corrugated and solid fiber boxes and interior containers were manufactured in March, out of which 54,000,000 V-boxes were required for overseas shipments.

"Our supply routes have been lengthened to as much as 15,000 miles in instances where supplies will be re-packaged in Europe and shipped to our bases in the Pacific, while supplies shipped directly from the United States must traverse a distance of more than 6,000 miles to Manila, which is still almost 2,000 miles short of the Japanese homeland," Mr. Cancell said.

The long supply routes are going to require more care in packing, according to the Forest Products Bureau. "Additional care," Mr. Cancell pointed out, "must be taken to protect supplies from tropical rot developing in the humid conditions in the Pacific."

The situation was reported as already acute, and likely to become more serious as time passes and increased demands for the Japanese war continue. In view of this, the combined efforts of all pulpwood producers throughout the year are called for, Mr. Cancell concluded.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Dan Culpin Gets His Second Wind

Dan Culpin got his plowing done in record time this year. He was sitting on his porch, enjoying a well-deserved glass of beer, while Bob Wirts, his neighbor, still had over an acre to go.

It burned Bob up, seeing Dan relaxed while he worked. So he'd stop and have a glass of cider—and make out that he was in no hurry any way.

"And that was the trouble," Dan explained to me. "I kept on going till I got my second wind; and saved my rest until the job was done. He stopped to rest—and he never got his second wind."

From where I sit, there's a moral there for all of us. We've been working hard to win this war. A little rest may look awfully tempting. But by keeping going, by never letting up, we can count on getting our second wind that will overcome weariness and see us through to Victory.

YANK IS HELD AS PRISONER BY OWN TROOPS

Framingham, Mass., June 7 (AP)—A 27-year-old American soldier spent the "30 most harrowing days" of his life when he was captured by his own troops and held as a wounded "German" prisoner of war.

Corporal Gilbert J. Beamesderfer, of Ephrata, Pa., a Cushing General Hospital patient recently granted a 90-day work furlough, was a squad leader in the 35th Division of the Third Army before events became too confused for comfort.

He remembered leading his men against a German machine gun nest in France and being hit in the left arm.

Then apparently he got mixed up with some captured Germans and when he awoke he was in a hospital. Just before they gave him ether, a surgeon spoke to him reassuringly—in German, Beamesderfer, who speaks German, grinned and answered in the enemy language.

Hours later an American lieutenant passed by, and Beamesderfer asked: "What happened? Have we been captured?"

Held 30 Days

"Be quiet," the lieutenant said. "You're with your buddies."

"Buddies, hell!" Beamesderfer screamed. "Get me out of here. I'm an American!"

The officer smiled and left. Germans posing as Americans were nothing new. After ten days in France, the prisoners, including Beamesderfer, were transferred to a POW camp in England. Finally he managed to nab an interrogator.

"I'll tell you things about Pennsylvania that no one could tell you unless he's actually been there," Beamesderfer said desperately.

They called in a Philadelphia nurse. He told her about the unique customs of the Amish, descendants of German settlers of eastern Pennsylvania. The nurse was impressed.

Camp officials cabled Washington for his fingerprints. They established Beamesderfer as Beamesderfer. On the 30th day of his imprisonment, an officer burst into his tent and announced:

"I am happy to inform you that you're an American at last!"

NAZIS SOBERED BY HORROR PIX

Fort Custer, Mich., June 7 (AP)—German war prisoners confined here were taken on a brief movie tour of German horror camps yesterday and emerged a far more serious, sober lot than entered the theater.

It was the first showing here of a series of newsreels of Nazi prison camps which the War department has ordered all German prisoners to see.

As pictures of gaunt, emaciated German captives were flashed on the screen, many of the prisoners shifted uneasily in their seats.

Scenes showing piles of bodies, methods of torture death, living-dead captives, brought no audible comment except an occasional clearing of throats. As German civilians appeared in the picture, the prisoners strained forward to catch glimpses of those they might know.

As they fled out, many of the Germans were swallowing hard, their lips in tight thin lines. One man was rubbing his eyes. Another grinned nervously. Most stared straight ahead, straightening up perceptibly when they realized newspaper reporters were watching them. There was no joking, laughing or talking among themselves as when they were going into the theater.

HOSPITAL SITE SELECTION NEAR

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Use of Camp Reynolds at Greenville, Pa., as the site for an 1,800-bed neuropsychiatric veterans' hospital hinges on negotiations between the veterans administration and the war department.

Col. L. H. Tripp, director of construction for the veterans' administration, told a reporter Tuesday the VA prefers the Greenville site, although the agency now has a survey engineer touring central and western Pennsylvania for "substitute" locations.

Tripp said he believes war department "conditions" relating to transfer of the nearly abandoned Mercer county army camp can be met or compromised satisfactorily.

The veterans' administration said it prefers Camp Reynolds to any other site because the government owns the land, utilities are already constructed, and erection of the hospital can begin speedily.

Meanwhile, the VA went ahead with plans to take over a 13-acre site in and adjoining the University of Pittsburgh campus for a 1,200-bed general medical and surgical hospital which may be expanded by another 263 beds.

No additional veterans' hospitals are authorized or recommended for western Pennsylvania at the present time. The VA has authority to build two somewhere in eastern Pennsylvania, Tripp said. He added that it is asking authority to build a

GARDENERS ARE URGED TO GROW "SUBSTITUTES"

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—Pennsylvania Victory gardeners were urged today to plant those vegetables that will best serve as a replacement for meat and fruit.

Dr. Warren B. Mack, of State College, executive secretary of the State Council of Defense Victory Garden committee, said "meats, which supply protein, iron and the B vitamins, are scarce throughout the nation, and it is not expected that the supply will increase materially during a considerable period."

Miles Horst, secretary of the state Department of Agriculture pointed out that fruits crops in some sections were severely damaged and greatly reduced by late freezes this spring.

Same Dietary Values

Victory gardeners were advised by Dr. Mack they can help overcome these shortages in the commercial food supply.

"No specific substitute for meats exists," he said. "Certain vegetables, however, may supply many of the dietary values of meats, and can be planted after this date in most parts of Pennsylvania."

"Among these are several kinds of beans, such as lima beans, green shell beans, and soybeans, which supply protein, iron and B-vitamins; and greens, such as chard, beet greens, kale, mustard greens, broccoli, and spinach, which will supply some iron, B-vitamins, and a little protein."

Fruit Substitutes

At the head of the list of vegetables which may pinch-hit for fruits, Dr. Mack lists tomatoes. Next in nutritional value are sweet peppers, and in sections where soil and climate will permit cucumbers and muskmelons are considered excellent substitutes for fruits.

Fall vegetables that serve a similar purpose are green celery, radishes, turnips and rutabagas, all of which can be stored in cool cellars for use during winter months, while fall cabbage can be preserved also as kraut.

Continued cold, wet weather will likely cause a shortage of canned vegetables for civilian supply, Horst declared.

"It is significant," he said, "that the President of the United States, within one week, has made two public appeals for increased planting of home gardens. Such action should mean only that the situation is more serious than we think."

SOVIET DEFEAT LOOMS ON ISSUE OF VETO POWER

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER (AP Diplomatic News Editor) San Francisco, June 7 (AP)—

American-Soviet differences over the right of free discussion in a world security council headed today toward an open fight in the United Nations Conference, with the prospect that Russia would be defeated.

The Soviet delegation is reported expecting no word from Moscow to change its decision that the Yalta voting formula gives each of the Big-Five powers the right to veto discussion of an international dispute in the council.

If this is borne out in official dispatches from Moscow, the official silence on the controversy which has been nursed along by the other powers in the hope of preserving Big-Five unity, may be broken abruptly in formal statements.

Opposing Views

That would have the effect of speeding up Conference work. The veto issue has jammed important progress for almost two weeks. First the Russian delegation waited for its original instructions on the veto issue, and then the United States sought to get Moscow to reconsider its views.

The Big-Five met late yesterday but the subject was not discussed. Instead the Russian, American, British, French and Chinese delegation chiefs dealt with relatively minor issues, getting final agreement on a French amendment designed merely to strengthen protection already proposed under the world charter for treaties against enemy states of this war.

The Russian view of the veto is flatly opposed to that of the American delegation which is shared by Britain, France and China. These four contend that no power could have a veto vote until after a dispute had been discussed.

May Be Up to Big 3

Assuming that the Russians reject any modification, the decision which the United States must make already has been checked to President Truman.

Truman. It is this: Should the United States launch a major fight for the principle of "free discussion" or should it seek to minimize the disagreement with Russia, in the interest of keeping the big-power front as united as possible.

Whatever the American decision may be, many of the small nation delegates are already steamed up on this point. It is about the only real point of attack they have left on the veto since on all other points the big powers in agreement.

That the controversy eventually may go beyond the limits of the Conference here, and become a subject of negotiation by Premier Stalin, Prime Minister Churchill and President Truman, is considered a possibility.

NORWEGIANS MADE GUNS IN SECRET PLANTS

San Francisco June 7 (AP)—A Norwegian diplomat today bared the story of how thousands of his countrymen toiled in secret factories to produce great stores of guns and ammunition under the very nose of the Nazis.

Hans Olav of the Norwegian embassy in Washington, said in an interview that secret factories tucked away in Norway's almost inaccessible snow-clad mountains turned out thousands of sten-guns and millions of rounds of ammunition for distribution among 40,000 Norwegian underground fighters.

Olav disclosed that in addition to arms and munitions manufactured at home, Britain and America sent vast supplies of arms and other military equipment into Norway by parachute, submarine and surface boats.

Never Found By Nazis

But the story of the secret factories operating day and night during the last months of German occupation provides an amazing new page in Norway's underground fight against the Nazis and their quiescent collaborators.

"The factories," Olav explained, "were highly concealed. They were scattered throughout areas of the country that were impossible to reach except on foot."

"Just how many guns and rounds of ammunition were turned out we

Indict Firm For Selling Vital Paper On "Black Market"

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—Hundreds of tons of paper board vitally needed to crate ammunition for the fighting fronts were diverted into black market channels here during the critical stages of the European war, a federal grand jury charged yesterday.

Today's Talk

A FINE BIBLE BOOK

The world's "best seller" is the Bible—and yet, familiar as it is as a book, and read as it is by millions each day, it is probably less understood than any other book in the world—that is, it is less actually known.

George Stimpson, a Washington correspondent, who has made the Bible a study from the time of his early youth when he was presented with a Bible by his mother, has just produced a book called "A Book About the Bible," which seems to me to be one of the most fascinating books to read that I have ever come across. Almost a lifetime has been spent on the preparation for this book by its author. Something like two thousand questions are asked and answered in the book of nearly five hundred pages, and it is carefully indexed.

This book can be picked up for any odd moment and read to one's taste. It is so interesting, however, that where I planned to spend a few moments of my time reading in it, I found myself devoting hours to it! Take questions like these, for example: "What language did Adam speak?" "Who was Cain's wife?" "Is there any humor in the Bible?" "What language did Jesus speak?" "Are there any negro Jews?" "What is a 'Jesse tree'?" "What is a 'Jesse tree'?" "Is 'God Save the King' in the Bible?" "How did 'the skin of the teeth' originate?" And so on throughout the several hundred pages.

Mr. Stimpson's book proves how very valuable the Bible is, and has been for centuries in shaping the thought and conduct of millions of human beings. It is an intensely human book, outside its spiritual significance, this Bible of ours, and George Stimpson, in creating a book of questions and answers about the Bible, is sure to stimulate a wider reading of this remarkable book. Great care has been taken by the author to give accurate and reliable information from every available source.

Of course the Bible is a library in itself, and thousands of books have been written about it. Mr. Stimpson has not attempted to make this an over-all book of his, but to ask questions of universal interest about the Bible, and then he has answered them in more than a mere answer. In fact his book is a veritable gold mine of information—in miniature essay form. Its appeal is universal and there isn't a dull page in it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Losses and Lessons."

Indianapolis, (AP)—Mrs. Patricia Read, digging in her flower garden, found a gold wedding ring with "Pud" engraved inside.

By tracing previous occupants of the residence, she learned that Mrs. Henry Bruner was known as "Pud" and had lost her wedding ring 45 years ago while visiting a relative.

The gold band was returned to Mrs. Bruner four months before the Bruner's will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

G-burg Cops Baseball Title: For the first time in the history of the Gettysburg high school, the Maroon and White baseball aggregation clubbed their way to the state high school championship on Saturday when they drubbed the strong Easton aggregation 12 to 2, in one of the most thrilling games ever played here.

"Big Jim" Tennant, pitching ace, was assigned to mound duty by Coach Reynolds and pitched himself to fame in the championship contest. It was Gettysburg's sixteenth straight victory this season.

Local Girl Weds Secretly Thursday: Surprising their friends, Miss Ruth Reinecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Reinecker, Barlow street, and Ralph Rhodes, Palmyra, were quietly married by the Rev. L. S. Young, pastor of the Mt. Joy Lutheran church, at the parsonage, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Playground Is Crowded for '25 Formal Opening: More than 500 Gettysburg kiddies romped and played under a burning June sun, when C. C. "Junior" Bream threw open the Gettysburg Playground for the summer season, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Couple Is Wedded: James Sandoe and Miss Martha Haldeman, both of Biglerville, were united in marriage at the Arendtville Lutheran church parsonage by the Rev. George B. Ely, Wednesday evening.

Couple Is Wedded: Miss Belva N. Deardorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Deardorff, of McKnightstown and Walter Jamison Lott, of Gettysburg, were married by the Rev. Philip Bower at 4 o'clock, Saturday, May 30.

Tea Cups Celebrates 25th Anniversary: The Over the Tea Cups Literary club celebrated its 25th anniversary Tuesday night at the Quaker Valley Country club when the guests included members of the Heteria club and other friends.

A history of the club was given by Doctor P. M. Bikle, who was one of the charter members; Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson gave a memorial address; Mrs. Gail Bucher, of Boiling Springs, read an original poem; Miss Nancy Keith and Laddie Keith entertained with a folk dance, and vocal numbers were given by Reverend and Mrs. N. L. Horn, Roy Purviance, Donald Cotton, Nancy Horn, Donald and Betty Swope.

Death Claims T. R. Marshall (By Associated Press), Washington, June 1.—Thomas R. Marshall, wartime vice president under Woodrow Wilson, died here today of a heart attack.

James M. Mitchell Gets Commission: James Mann Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Mitchell, Center Square, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the infantry officers reserve corps, United States Army.

Chautauqua Program Best Here in Years: The program circulars of the Radcliffe chautauqua, which is scheduled here for three days beginning June 11th, indicate that a very interesting time is in store for those who will take advantage of the occasion, made possible by a number of public-minded citizens who are sponsoring the affair.

61 High Seniors Given Diplomas: Brum Chapel, crowded with parents, relatives and friends of the students, witnessed the graduation of 61 seniors at the Gettysburg high school, Wednesday evening.

The Rev. A. B. Bunn Van Ormer, of Huntingdon, delivered one of the most instructive commencement addresses heard by a high school senior class in recent years.

The list of graduates follows:
Mildred Deardorff, Cordelia Hartman, Jeannette Horner, Edith Clare, Donovan Bream, Florence McClellan, Fred Bieseker, Louise Ramer, Rena Burman, Edgar Auker, Helen Spangler, Walter Stultz, Ruth Reinecker, Alfred Gilbert, John Mickle, William Dutler, Paul Reaser, Cora Riley, Bernice Strausbaugh, Treva Bream, Richard Sheads, Charles Starnier, Margaret Epley, Mary Louise Scott, Florence Brown, Mary McClellan, Russell Riley, Clifton Wiernman, Ethel Mumper, Kenneth Alwine, Jennie Keefe.

Pauline Weikert, Esther Straley, Theodore Viener, Frank Gardner, Charles Bender, Alvin Heiges, Marian Mumper, Mary Brown, Ellmore Shaybaugh, Ada Wetzel, Marguerite Rogers, Margaret Galbraith, Jacob Weikert, John Grindler, Raymond Hare, Earle Robert, Edwin Aughinbaugh, Charles Rogers, Donald Raf-fensperger, LeRoy Hartman, Willis Schwartz, Ralph Fisel, Elva Yohe, John Kittinger, Melvin Little, Sylvester McKenrick, Ruth Diehl, Margaret Snyder, Wilbert Livingston, Elizabeth Taughnbaugh.

Personal: Members of the graduating class of the Gettysburg high school were entertained Friday night at the home of Miss Bernice Strausbaugh, Broadway.

C. D. Stallsmith, North Stratton street, will go to Reading on Monday to attend the annual Redmen convention.

GUARANTEE OF FARM PROFITS BEING URGED

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Clinton P. Anderson, food boss-designate may call upon the army and foreign food claimants to join in guaranteeing farm profits.

A departure from the present program, the objective would be to remove future price fears as a barrier to all-out food production.

The New Mexico congressman who becomes Secretary of Agriculture and War Food Administrator July 1 strongly indicated at a House Food Investigating Committee hearing Tuesday that he has such a plan in mind.

Insufficient Funds
At present WFA is the only agency with funds directly available to carry out farm price guarantees. And its funds now are not sufficient to prevent a severe break in farm prices should demands drop abruptly.

Anderson's hint came during the committee's inquiry into ways of encouraging greater production of eggs and poultry. Chairman of the group, he observed that it would help to have the army offer a contract for its 1946 requirements at the same time it submitted estimates of needs.

Under such an arrangement the army would be under written obligation to buy the food at promised minimum prices even though military needs turned out to be smaller than estimated.

The same rule would apply to the foreign economic administration or any other agency handling estimates of lend-lease and foreign relief requirements.

Food and Munitions

Anderson in his brief committee discourse likened wartime food production to that of munitions. In the case of the latter, he said, no cost was spared in getting all the production military authorities thought necessary, even if it meant the construction of huge plants that might be virtually valueless after the war.

This same attitude should be taken, Anderson indicated, in getting food produced for war and foreign relief needs.

P. H. GIBBONS DIES

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—Patrick H. Gibbons, 85, retired internationally known gas engineer, died in nearby West Chester after suffering a stroke yesterday. Gibbons was awarded medals at the Paris and Columbian Expositions for papers on the manufacture of gas.

AN IMPRESSIVE RECORD

★ Although tuberculosis is one of the oldest known diseases, its cause was first conclusively proved when Robert Koch isolated the tubercle bacillus a little over fifty years ago. The success resulting from vigorous public health measures, particularly in the last quarter century, is impressive. At the beginning of the century, tuberculosis led the list of diseases as the most frequent cause of death. Today it has dropped to seventh place. There is no reason why it should not drop completely from the list of important causes of death.

This splendid record has resulted from the combined efforts of many agencies. An enlightened public opinion with respect to the value of the physician's services has contributed immeasurably. Have that long-delayed physical examination today. We are prescription specialists.

Insect Pests As Groups

In the war against insects which prey on garden crops, fruit and all ornamental plants experience leads to identification of the individual species and knowledge of its habits and requirements. But beginners may well turn their study of insect enemies toward general groups rather than particular species and thereby simplify tasks of control.

These groups are roughly divided as follows: (1) Insects which attack the underground parts of plants and stem bases, such as cutworms and root maggots; (2) Plant lice; (3) Sap-sucking bugs, such as the well-known squash bug; (4) Caterpillars; and (5) Stalk and stem borers.

There are two main methods of controlling the first group—poison baits to kill cutworms and use of a repellent solution to prevent injuries by root maggots. Readers who have not already obtained a copy of our cutworm control guide may do so by sending a 3-cent stamp with their name and address to the editor. Too, they may ask for all the information they desire in combating the cabbage root maggot and other pests of this difficult group.

White grubs and wireworms, so common in the home garden, although both are troublesome to several field crops, especially in years when their active cycle of attack occurs.

Can Control Lice
Plant lice, as most gardeners know, can be fully controlled by spraying the pests with nicotine sulphate at the rate of 1½ teaspoonsful to a gallon of soapy water or by applying a nicotine dust when the air is still and the temperature is at or above 70 degrees. It is important to repeat combat measures as often as necessary to kill all the lice.

Sap-sucking bugs, such as the mentioned squash bug, often called "Stink Bug," may be kept under control by hand-picking or by a contact spray, preferable nicotine sulphate. Fresh pyrethrum dust is another effective remedy.

Beetles and caterpillars may be considered jointly, for in some instances the beetle is the feeding form, most troublesome and in others the caterpillar is the desperado. Both feed by eating plant foliage, stems and fruits. In general, both must be combated by a stomach insecticide, Cryolite, as a dust or spray, is recommended on plants.

LAST BONUS MONEY SOON DUE '17 VETS

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, June 7 (AP)—Veterans of World War I can save themselves a chunk of money by doing the smart thing before June 15.

On that date the last war's veterans collect the last of their bonus money. This money totals $275,000,000 in what is called "adjusted service bonds."

These bonds—although some veterans don't seem to have realized it—have borne 3 per cent interest since 1936. They will not bear interest after June 15.

All That's Left
That $275,000,000 is all that's left of $3,758,564,439 handed over by the government as a bonus to World War I veterans and their dependents.

Here's the story:
Veterans of the last war, when discharged from service, were given $60 and carfare home. Then they began to fight for a bonus.

In 1924 Congress gave it to them in this way:
Veterans who had served in this country were to be given $1 for every day's service. Overseas veterans were to get $1.25 for every day abroad.

No veteran could receive more than $500 for total service in this country nor more than $625 for overseas service.

Veterans with credits of $50 or less were given $50. That finished them. They received $501,880.

(At the same time dependents of deceased veterans—there were 144, 871 veterans who had died before 1924, were paid a total of $46,309,681, whether the deceased veterans service called for less than $50 or up to $625.)

But to the living veterans with credits of more than $50, the bonus money was not paid in cash. It was handed out in what the government called "adjusted compensation certificates."

This was all in 1924—or rather it went into effect January 1, 1925—and there were $3,786,556 living veterans who received the compensation certificates totaling $3,706,752,878.

The certificates couldn't be cashed because they were really insurance policies—20-year endowment policies. Which meant:

New System in 1936
These policies were paid-up endowment policies equal to about 2½ times the value of the compensation certificate.

In 1931 Congress passed a law which permitted the veterans to borrow up to 50 per cent of the face value of the policy but no more than $725. Many borrowed to the limit.

In 1936 Congress set up a new system. Congress said veterans could exchange their certificates for Treasury bonds.

These bonds—although some veterans don't seem to have realized it—have borne 3 per cent interest since 1936. They will not bear interest after June 15.

"Sweetheart Fines"

Charged To Judge

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—Criticism that he was imposing "sweetheart fines" on rent ceiling violators was answered by Federal Judge F. P. Schoonmaker yesterday with the statement: "I decided these cases on the evidence."

The Rev. Charles Owne Rice, area rent director, complained of two cases yesterday. In one, Cleveland and Waneeta Bates had been fined $100 after pleading guilty to overcharging $988 in renting properties, and in the other, Mrs. Helen Lenko was fined $50 for evicting a tenant who refused to pay a rent increase.

"I can't understand why a judge who is sworn to uphold the law should do a thing like that," said Father Rice. "It certainly makes the job of the area rent director tougher when a judge gives sweetheart fines to flagrant violators."

"Father Rice wasn't in court and didn't present any evidence," said Judge Schoonmaker. "I thought the fines were reasonable in view of the evidence."

NO CAB FOR OFFICIAL

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—Edward F. Kram, cam company official, won a live rooster at a luncheon club meeting yesterday. He didn't want to make a spectacle of himself walking up Fifth avenue with the bird under his arm, so he decided to halt a cab. Quite some time and several hails later—he walked!

Churchman Objects To Ban On Meetings

Wilkesburg, Pa., June 7 (AP)—An official of the American Council of Christian Churches, in a letter to President Truman, protested today that the Office of Defense Transportation lifted its ban on horse racing but still imposes restrictions on Bible conferences.

Council Secretary W. O. H. Garmann also protested that "ODT has practically denied members of our constituent denominations the right to meet for Bible study conferences unless we incorporated more recreation in such programs and made a corresponding reduction in Bible study."

"The ODT has no right in this land to tell us how much Bible study we may or may not do," he said, declaring that members of the 14 denominations he represents would "resist such bureaucratic interference no matter what it may cost."

Asserting that ODT directives "violate our right to freedom in worship," he deplored that permits were required for church conventions, saying they should be put on a "voluntary basis."

HOME RUN WINS FOR RED ROSES

(By The Associated Press)

Joe Kratzer hit a home run over the club house in left field with one out in the eleventh inning to give Lancaster a 6-5 decision over Allentown last night and also to give the Red Roses a firm hold on first place in the Interstate league.

The Trenton Spartans scored their second straight win over the Wilmington Blue Rocks, 10-3, in their game at Wilmington; Tom Witz, Wilmington starter, was given wobbly support in the first session as his mates committed three errors which, coupled with three Trenton hits, produced five runs.

Another five-run rally off Witz in the fifth was claimed by a two-run homer from the bat of Les Studner, who went the full distance for the Spartans and limited the Blue Rocks to four hits.

The York White Roses defeated the Hagerstown Owls 5-2 in a game played at York. Jim Patton, of York, struck out 11 batsmen and scattered six hits.

Today's schedule: Allentown at Lancaster, Trenton at Wilmington and Hagerstown at York.

"PRESSURE" FAILS
Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—A proposal by employees of the Scranton Transit company that they would end their work stoppage if the regional war labor board agreed to arbitration of all 51 points in dispute was rejected by the RWLB yesterday.

TRIO OF YANKS ARE CALLED BY DRAFT BOARDS

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Draft board calls threaten to cripple the New York Yankees today as Cleveland and the St. Louis Browns regain key men and the Boston Red Sox begin to act like pennant contenders.

Center fielder Johnny Lindell and second baseman George Stinweis of the leading Yanks are due to take pre-induction physicals today along with Pitcher Bill Zuber in New York city.

Loss of either Lindell or Stinweis would throw the American league race into a wide open scramble and could make the Yanks a third or fourth place club.

News that third baseman Mark Christman was to rejoin the champion Browns on a full time basis and the signing by Cleveland of outfielder Jeff Heath served to boost the chances of both clubs.

Red Sox Spurt
Boston is the real surprise of the month, moving into a virtual three-way tie for third place only three and one-half games behind New York on the strength of Pitcher Dave Ferriss.

When the Army Air Force dischargee joined the Red Sox, the club had just won its first game after losing its first eight starts. Manager Joe Cronin had broken his leg at the Yankee stadium a few days earlier and the Sox flourished in the basement.

After a doubleheader triumph over Philadelphia yesterday in which Ferriss hung up his eighth successive triumph, Boston was finally above the .500 mark with a 21-20 record only two and one percentage points behind the Browns and White Sox, respectively.

Ferriss was not at his best against the A's, yielding 14 hits but he left 14 runners stranded in copping number eight by a 5-2 margin. The rookie ace helped his cause with a double and batted in a run. The nightcap was capped by Boston, 3-2. Red Barrett turned in a fine job of relief pitching as Ben Steiner's triple and Tom McBride's outfield fly won the game in the eighth.

Dutch Leonard stopped the Yankees cold with four singles and drove home two scores with a perfect three-for-three night at bat to win 4-0 in a night game at Washington.

Tigers Gain Game
Detroit picked up a full game on New York to trail by one and one-half as Stubby Overmire won his fourth straight in trimming Cleveland, 8-1.

Orval Grove shut the door on the St. Louis Browns, 4-0, although the Chicago Sox got only six hits off Sig Jakucki and Weldon West.

Pittsburgh slipped back a half game in its chase of the New York Giants and now is tied with St. Louis three and one-half lengths behind the leaders after bowing to Cincinnati's Bucky Walters, 3-0.

Boston clubbed the future Phillies twice, 15-1, behind Mort Cooper, and 7-3 to give Johnny Hutchings his first decision of the year. It was unbeaten Cooper's fourth in a row and his second since he was traded by the Cards.

New York and Brooklyn were not scheduled and the Chicago-St. Louis night game was postponed.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON

New York, June 7 (AP)—Wonder why the Kentucky Derby tub-thumpers don't try to steam up an "international angle" based on the breeding of the horses? ... Of course you don't have to go back very far to find a foreign branch on any racer's family tree, but it seems noteworthy that nearly one third of the original 155 nominees were by imported sires and four of the leading candidates belong to that group. ... Hoop, Jr., is a son of that English-born old-timer, Sir Gallahad III. Alexis and Jeff were sired by two comparatively recent and expensive importations, Heliopolis and Mahmoud and Darby Dieppe is by Foray II out of an imported dam, La Cromia. ... Maybe Kentuckians are so certain of the superiority of equine products of the Blue Grass that they don't think it's worth arguing about.

THE HAPPY SID
In a mild protest against some mild criticism from this corner, Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler points out that he had no specific protest from Birmingham, Ala., over the signing of high school kids by professional clubs. ... He encloses a letter from Athletic Director Homer L. Thomas of the Birmingham schools which, though emphatic, was couched in very general terms. ... Naturally, the commissioner couldn't investigate that. ... Our idea is that Thomas should have given the basis of his complaint and, since he didn't, Chandler should have asked for details. ... Even in the deep bushes where Happy used to play ball two boners don't make a smart play.

SHORTS AND SHIRTS
Buck Cheeves, whom the football coaches consider the south's No. 1 referee, probably is the only official to turn down a Rose Bowl bid. He was asked to work the Tennessee-Southern Cal. game last January but preferred to stay at home with his son, who was on furlough. ... No grey horse ever won the Kentucky Derby. Darby Dieppe is a grey. Period. ... The U. of Connecticut baseball team compiled its best record in 36 years this spring while using only ten players. The sub was Fred Berggren, who pinch-hit in one game.

DERBY ENTRIES INCLUDE LONE FILLY HOPEFUL

By CHARLES DUNKLEY

Louisville, Ky., June 7 (AP)—Hope springs eternal in the breast of a proud owner of a thoroughbred filly. Arthur Rose of Mt. Clemens, Mich., is no exception.

Rose, secretary of the Michigan Racing Commission is the proud owner of Misweet, least talked about nominee of the 17 possible starters in the 71st Kentucky Derby Saturday. She's going to run come rain, mud or a fast track.

Even the blazing workout of Hoop Jr., one of the favorites, yesterday failed to frighten Rose or his trainer, Lee O'Donnell. Hoop Jr., one of a trio of eastern threats, carrying the derby weight of 126 pounds, thundered around the Churchill Downs track to hit the mile post in 1:38 3/5, fastest time since Johnstown turned in a pre-derby mile in 1939.

Blistering trials, Rose and O'Donnell argue, do not always win the race.

One Filly Winner
Seventy times the Kentucky derby has been decided and only once has a filly's nose come down in front—Regret 30 years ago. Forty-five other fillies vainly have attempted to triumph through the long years. It has been nine years since a filly even started. Gold Seeker tried it in 1936 and finished ninth in a field of fourteen.

Misweet, purchased for only $1,850, and winner of nearly $9,000 in her first year of racing, has started nineteen times and never has been worse than fourth. She triumphed twice, finished third three times and holds the distinction of having soundly defeated Darby Dieppe, winner of the Blue Grass—take, last Saturday, as a juvenile last year.

COUNTY OWNED HORSE IN D.H.

Charles Town, W. Va., June 7—A thrilling dead heat was the high point of the Wednesday program of the Charles Town Jockey club. L. S. Stewart's Clock Time and Yaf, owned by Mrs. Mildred Plank, Aspers, hooked up in a sizzling stretch duel and the judges were unable to separate them with the aid of the photo finish camera.

It was a battle of youth and age down to the wire with the 7-year-old mare, Clock Time, sticking to her task to stave off challenges of the 3-year-old filly, Yaf.

The struggle came in the Sam Rice, a test of about six furlongs, named for the former Washington ball player who visited the track in company with a group of Washington bowlers. Third money in the field of six went to Wayne Kendrick's Apple A Day.

Jockey Patsy Grant, who makes his home here, drove Clock Time into the wire while Jockey Woodward Kirk, of Silver Spring, Md., had the mount on Yaf in the even-Stephen finish. Those who backed Clock Time received an across-the-board mutual of $2.80, $3.00 and $2.20. Supporters of Yaf had to be satisfied with $5.60, $5.60 and $3.40. Apple A Day returned $3.40 to show. The running time was 1:19 1/5.

Clock Time went to the front early, shook off a challenge from Apple A Day, but Yaf moved up on the outside to make her bid. The two hooked up leaving the backstretch and from that point to the wire it was a nose and nose struggle with a dead heat a fitting decision.

SPORT SHORTS

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—Pittsburgh baseball fans got their orders last night about tossing pop bottles onto Forbes field.

In the fourth inning, Cincinnati Reds' outfielder Gee Walker registered a violent protest after Pirate hurler Preacher Roe nipped him off second base.

When he returned to his position, fans tossed several pop bottles in Walker's direction though none near enough to endanger him.

Umpires halted the barrage by announcing over the public address system that if another bottle was thrown, the game would be forfeited to the Reds.

Wrappings of aluminum have been developed to keep parsnips, avocados, plums and oranges fresh for as long as six months.

Alcohol Workers Go Back To Jobs

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—Workers at the Publicker Commercial Alcohol Co. were back at their jobs today after officials of the company and Local 163, United Distillery Workers, CIO, agreed yesterday to extend to June 15 their contract which expired May 15.

The strike of the 3,600 employees started Tuesday.

The company-union agreement provides that if contract differences are not resolved by the new date, the contract shall be extended indefinitely and then, if necessary, the dispute will be reported to the Regional War Labor Board.

News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

EMMITSBURG HS ALUMNI ATTEND BUSINESS MEET

A business meeting of the Emmitsburg high school alumni was held Saturday, June 2. It was the first meeting since 1942, due to wartime restrictions. A dance followed with McDonald's orchestra and punch and cake were served to the guests.

At the meeting a new president and vice president were elected. The other officers being reinstated. Dr. Carson Fraley, executive vice president of the American Drug Manufacturing association, is the new president and William Simpson is vice president.

William Hays, an alumnus and new member of the Massachusetts state legislature, spoke, also Dr. Hays, biochemist for the Citra Pharmaceutical Co. of Summit, N. J.

Principal Speaks
A. L. Leary, principal of the school, spoke on the accomplishments of graduates. He said "Our boys and girls have attended the following colleges: Mt. St. Mary's, U. of Md., Washington college, Strayer's Business college, Western Maryland college, State Teachers' college and Hagerstown Business colleges. Many of our students have had unusual records at these colleges.

"Many of our girls have trained for nursing at Mercy hospital, St. Joseph's, The Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore, the Frederick City hospital and York.

"Our students are in many branches of the service, young men and women doing their part to preserve the many freedoms our forefathers held sacred. Some have made the supreme sacrifice.

Reviews Year's Record
"The Emmitsburg chapter of FFA placed second in the National Dairyman's Cattle Judging contest, where 840 teams participated with the chapter at Altus, Oklahoma, winning first place. All members of the chapter participated in judging five major breeds of dairy cattle.

"The Emmitsburg chapter won first place in the Sanitary Milk Production contest sponsored by the Baltimore city health department. They made a score of 96.8 out of a possible 100 points. The contest was open to all areas shipping milk to Baltimore. The local members put on a demonstration which was scored as well as a written test. They will receive a trophy for their efforts.

"The FFA boys have collected during the school year 18 1/4 tons of scrap including paper, magazines, rags, bones, iron and fat.

"Students of the elementary and high schools have bought $24-

Emmitsburg

Mrs. Lula Patterson Haley and Mrs. Carrie McNair Plank, of Gettysburg, and Miss Grace Rowe, of Washington, D. C., had dinner with Mrs. George Eyster last week. All four ladies are members of the Emmitsburg high school alumnae of 1907.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Small, from near Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John White.

The Emmitsburg elementary school closed June 5, graduating 42 students. After the processional a prayer was offered followed by salute to the flag. There was a playlet given entitled "All American." A. L. Leary addressed the graduating students encouraging them to continue their schooling.

The Over the Tea Cups Sewing club was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Oscar Stinson.

Miss Caroline S. McSherry, of Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James M. Alvey.

Mrs. R. J. Conlon and daughter, 431.85 worth of stamps and bonds since October 1944," he said.

After Mr. Leary's speech, a committee was appointed "to insure the future security of the Emmitsburg Senior high school."

Husband Gives Up In Fatal Shooting

Philadelphia, June 7 (AP)—Detectives questioned George E. Keller, 46, last night in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife, Mrs. Anna W. Keller, 47, in her home here Tuesday night.

Detective Sgt. Charles Beckman said Keller walked into detective headquarters, identified himself and asked about his son, George, 15, who was seriously wounded when he attempted to defend his mother during an argument between his parents.

OFFERS REWARD

East Liverpool, Ohio, June 6 (AP)—Jack Jay today offered a reward of $1,000 for discovery of the plane in which his son, Lt. Herbert M. Jay, was riding when it disappeared May 26. Jay said he believed the airplane was forced down somewhere in the Allegheny mountains.

Catherine Ann, Miss Louise Wilkerson, Dick Marsden, Mrs. Herbert L'Heureux and family visited Miss Louise Sebald last week. Mrs. Herbert L'Heureux and children are leaving soon for Marseille, France, where her husband is Consul-General.

MT. ST. MARY'S GIVES HONORARY DEGREES TO 8

Honorary degrees were conferred at exercises held at Mt. St. Mary's college at Emmitsburg at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Two hundred and fifty persons attended the ceremony which was held at McCaffrey hall following a procession from the campus chapel led by the members of the college V-12 Naval cadets.

The program opened with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the seminary choir after which the invocation was given by Bishop George L. Leech of the Harrisburg diocese.

The choir sang "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" and then the formal address of welcome was delivered by the college president, the Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan, president of the college. The awarding of honorary degrees was followed by the singing of "Adoro Te" by the choir.

"Taps" was sounded for the 29 former students and graduates of the college who have given their lives in World War II. The bugler was Warren W. Barker, AS, USNR. The singing of "America" by the choir and the pronouncing of the benediction by Bishop Leech concluded the exercises.

During the exercises the college presented to Judge J. J. O'Brien of Wheeling, W. Va., a citation honoring him on the fiftieth anniversary of his graduation from the Mount.

The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon the following for meritorious achievement in their respective fields: Bishop George L. Leech; Bishop William J. Hafey, Scranton diocese; Captain Bart Hogan, former medical officer aboard the Wasp who was decorated by the Navy; Thomas Schmidt, Harrisburg, president of the Mt. St. Mary's National Alumni association; Dr. Victor Cullen, Sabillasville, Md., who was absent because he was attending a meeting of the National Tuberculosis association of which he has just become president; Thomas Pangborn, Hagerstown aircraft manufacturer; Edward Hogan, Providence, R. I., an alumnus, and Col. John Saul, Washington, D. C., also an alumnus.

The convocation was followed by a turkey dinner at the college.

Flashes Of Life

NAUGHTY, NAUGHTY

Richmond, Cal., (AP)—The parents of 18-months-old Kenneth Harnps may be forgiven if they think his latest playful trick wasn't cute.

Mrs. Julie Harnps, 29, asked police to help look for a purse containing $999 in cash and the family's five ration books. She said Kenneth had thrown it from the car window on a busy street.

SECRET WEAPON

Salt Lake City, (AP)—When a section of the sidewalk literally exploded, a botany professor, not an ordnance expert, was called in to investigate.

Dr. Walter P. Cotton of the University of Utah said a common edible mushroom, whose cell sap was greatly increased by heavy rains, caused about 2,250 pounds of pressure per square inch beneath the walk and blew it up.

OFFICIAL STRANGER

Springfield, Ill., (AP)—U. S. Attorney Howard L. Doyle jumped from his seat in federal court when five men started to leave the courtroom and asked the judge whether he hadn't forgotten somebody—only four prisoners had been arraigned.

Judge Charles G. Briggie grinned, told the prosecutor it was about time he became acquainted with one of the five men—Joseph Wilson, newly appointed deputy marshal.

In early modern times, scurvy was the deadliest of diseases on long sea voyages.

Cafeteria Worries Cause Breakdown

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—Trying to run a cafeteria in these days of food shortage gave Clarence E. Hillard a nervous breakdown so he's quitting the business until September. "I figured it was better to walk out than be carried out," said Hillard as he locked up his eating place in the Wabash building.

"I just couldn't get meats of any kind to supply the 750 to 900 customers who came in daily," he said. "That, and efforts to obtain employees brought about a nervous condition and a break in health that just wasn't worth while." He had been running the cafeteria since 1929.

U. S. Sub Wins Proud Title, "Fighting" -- Night Battle

(The Army, the Air Forces and the Navy all have their heroes and their names are known to the world. But for three years the Navy's submarines have fought alone and for the most part their exploits were secrets buried in the Navy's voluminous files. One of the most remarkable actions ever performed by an undersea craft—a night surface engagement in which she scored 15 hits with 19 torpedoes—was performed by the submarine called Parche. The story is one of a "now it can be told" series on the Navy's submarines.)

By MURLIN SPENCER
Pearl Harbor, June 5 (AP)—Every submariner knows that you can't put a lone submarine up against an escorted convoy in an attack on the surface and get away with it. It is certain suicide.

But Commander Lawson P. Ramage did it, sank four Japanese ships, and got away without a scratch.

That's why Commander Ramage, of New London, Conn., holds the Congressional Medal of Honor and one of his war patrols ranks as one of the greatest feats ever performed by an American submarine.

The submarine was the "Parche" and she had the Japanese crazy. She fired 19 torpedoes in 46 minutes and she scored 15 hits in what the Navy is pleased to call a "brilliant night surface attack."

The Japanese were dumfounded when they found the Parche inside their protecting warships. They were so astonished they fired at each other. Sought to run the Parche and they came within 50 feet as Ramage maneuvered her out of the way. The warship and the Parche were so close the crews of the two ships shouted insults at each other—in English and Japanese.

Remarkable Career
 The Parche has had a remarkable career. She has had two skippers, Ramage and Lieut. Commander W. W. McCrory of Carlisle, Pa. She has had her brilliant moments and her tragedies, like the time Ensign J. M. Holleran, Mars, Pa., and two seamen were thrown overboard while working on deck. Only Holleran was recovered.

At one time under McCrory she encountered a destroyer and a freighter. A torpedo rocked the freighter and her bow lifted 100 feet in the air. The destroyer, which McCrory termed "the sorriest escort imaginable as he did not detect us," also was sunk.

In another action McCrory put a torpedo into a smaller merchant ship which "blew up in our faces in a tremendous red ball of fire. All hands below thought we had been hit."

Again the Parche was shooting up a small enemy vessel, McCrory said, when "two Jap planes muscled in. We dived leaving some ammunition on deck. A very close explosion was heard on the light bulbs" and McCrory, noting the date, decided "we would defy Friday the 13th no further."

But the greatest day of her career came south of Formosa. The Parche found a Japanese convoy and her crew went to battle stations. It was night, but visibility was good. Ramage maneuvered the boat inside of the escorting warships and went to work.

Ramage tells the story: "We fired at a ship and heard an explosion but there was no confirmation that she sank except we couldn't locate her after the show was over."

"We fired four torpedoes at a larger ship. The first hit disintegrated the bow while the other three piled into his bridge, quarter and stern. The ship sank immediately. "We attacked a second ship of the same type. Two hits slowed him down. By this time the escorts were cutting loose with machine-gun fire and flares."

"Along came another ship just asking for trouble. Two fish hit amidships. The ship broke in two and sank within a couple of minutes.

Scream Like Pigs
 "Then we went back after the cripple. He was firing everything he had but we were so close he couldn't depress his guns sufficiently to bring them to bear on us. We hit her with more torpedoes and they were enough to make her give up and go down, leaving only a small oil fire."

"A small escort was seen slashing in ready to ram. Called the engine house to pour in all the oil they had. The other fellow had the right of way but we were in a hurry."

"When halfway across his bow put the rudder full right, swinging our stern clear. The Japs were screaming like a bunch of wild pigs as we cleared all around by less than 50 feet. Mutual cheers and jeers were exchanged by all hands."

"They boxed us in, but there was a transport dead ahead. Stopped him with two torpedoes."

Sing Transport
 Back at sub base, however, they still talk about the Parche's great patrol when, single handed and on the surface, she knocked out four Japanese ships.

But the greatest tribute came in a formal report when the word "fighting" was tacked on the name of the submarine Parche.

BUTCHERS TO STAY OPEN
 Newark, N. J., June 7 (AP)—The decision of the New Jersey Retail Butchers' association Tuesday night not to shut down this summer may have averted a wholesale closing of butchers' shops in six other eastern states and the District of Columbia.

INCOME TAX PAYMENTS TO BE MADE SOON

BY JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 7 (AP)—About 10 million people must pay—by June 15—the second installment on their 1945 income taxes. You're one of them if, by last March 15, you filed a declaration of estimated tax for this year and haven't paid the first installment. If you're in this group, you probably have received a bill from the collector of internal revenue for the second installment. That bill will show the balance tax you owe for 1945. It also will show—if you don't want to pay the full balance—what you can pay on your quarterly installment. So, unless you want to pay the full balance, just pay the installment. Most people will do that. The financial position of some people may have changed since they filed that estimate of tax last March. They may have married, had a new baby, or acquired other new dependents. They could, if they wished, make an amended declaration by June 15. This would mean a change in their payments.

But there's not much reason why they should. They can wait till next March 15—when they make a final return on 1945 income—to file an amended declaration. They can straighten out their tax change then.

More Tax Withheld

But—suppose your business condition has changed drastically. Suppose you're an independent war contractor who has had a number of contracts cancelled since March 15.

In that case it would be to your interest to file an amended declaration by June 15. There'd be a lot more money involved than in a simple increase in the number of dependents.

This year—in order to get as many people as possible on a pay-as-you-go basis—full taxes are being withheld on all salaries and wages up to $5,000.

People in that under-$5,000 group don't have to pay any installments. They didn't have to make any estimates. Full tax is being withheld from them.

In These Classes?

But you are one of those who had to file a declaration and who must make quarterly payments if:

1. You have wages, subject to

6 ACCUSED OF PRYING INTO WAR SECRETS

By J. FRANK TRAGLE

Washington, June 7 (AP)—The government today accused a navy officer, two state department officials and three New Yorkers of prying into wartime secrets.

Taken into custody by FBI agents in New York and Washington late yesterday, the six were charged with conspiring to violate a section of the espionage statute covering unauthorized possession or transmission of national defense data.

The FBI said documents, ranging from "restricted" to "top secret" were stolen from the state, war and navy departments, the highly secret office of strategic services.

Withholding, in excess of $5,000, plus $500 for each surtax exemption except your own.

2. Your income from all other sources is more than $100, provided your total income is expected to amount to $500 or more.

The next dates for quarterly payments are Sept. 15 and Dec. 15.

ices, the office of war information and the federal communications commission. Part of FCC's wartime work has been recording enemy broadcasts.

List of Accused

Under arrest here are: Lt. Andrew Roth, 26, of Arlington, Va., former Columbia university honor student, who served for a time in the office of naval intelligence. A reserve officer, he is not on active duty.

Emmanuel Sigurd Larsen, 47, of Washington, specialist in the China division of the state department's office of far Eastern affairs.

John Stewart Service, 35, of Washington, a foreign service officer of the state department who until recently had an assignment with American military forces in China.

Held in New York are:

Philip Jacob Jaffe, 48, Russian-born editor of the magazine "Amerasia," president of a printing firm and active in organizations interested in far eastern affairs. The magazine is a fortnightly review of American and Asiatic affairs. Jaffe was naturalized in 1923.

Kate Louise Mitchell, 36, a graduate of Bryn Mawr college, a co-editor of "Amerasia" and the author of a number of books, including "Industrialization of the Western Pacific," "Japan's Industrial Strength"

STREAMLINER DERAILED

Walthourville, Ga., June 7 (AP)—Mrs. Sophie Foust, of Pittsburgh, was among several persons injured Tuesday when the Atlantic Coast Line railroad's Miami-to-New York streamliner hit an open switch and several coaches were derailed. She was taken to the Atlantic Coast Line hospital at Waycross.

Mark Julius Gayn, born Mark Julius Ginsburg, 37, a Free-Lance magazine writer, who was planning to go to Russia, India and China as a newspaper correspondent. A native of Manchuria, he was naturalized in 1943, two years after coming to this country.

Carries Heavy Penalty Conviction on the charge carries a maximum penalty of two years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The FBI said its investigation was begun at the request of the state and navy departments and "disclosed that data removed from the government's confidential files usually was turned over to Jaffe at meetings in Washington and New York."

Some of this information, the FBI said, was printed in Amerasia magazine, but the bureau declined comment on what use, if any, was made of the remainder.

Go To Court To Oust Minister

Holidaysburg, Pa., June 7 (AP)—The Rev. Dr. W. W. Breckbill defended himself in court Tuesday against an equity suit which attempts to oust him from the pulpit of the Broad Avenue Methodist church in Altoona.

The bill of complaint, filed by the Central Pennsylvania Methodist conference, alleges Dr. Breckbill withdrew from the conference to affiliate himself with the Primitive Methodist church but refused to 7 COMMON SENSE REASONS . . . why you as an American farmer should put every dollar you possibly can into War Bonds in the mighty 7th War Loan . . .

1 Farmers know that the demand for food is greater this year than ever before. And farmers are doing a magnificent job of producing it. The same urgent need applies to all war goods. For today the cost of the war is greater than ever.

2 Tons and tons of supplies must still flow to our millions of men in Europe. As you read this, still more tons must be shipped over the huge distances of the Pacific to our troops poised there already to begin the harvest. If we are not to let slip the opportunity to hit the Japs, hard—now we are at last in position to strike—we must supply these men with more of everything—new, harder hitting weapons . . . more powerful tanks . . . swift new giant planes—and more of them than ever before!

3 We must make sure that the tragic thousands of our wounded receive the best, most thorough care. That means money without stint—for bandages, for medicines, for thousands and thousands of completely equipped first-aid stations, dozens of hospital ships, hundreds of hospitals.

4 Last year up to this time there had been two war loans. This year, to raise about the same amount of money, the 7th War Loan must do two jobs in one. And so your country is asking you to back up those American boys slugging it out in the front lines—by digging down deep and buying twice as many War Bonds as you did last time.

5 And when you put your money—every cent you can into those bigger bonds in the big 7th War Loan, you'll be doing more than loaning cash for a vital, immediate war need—you'll be helping to fight the inflation that could wreck our nation's whole future. For loose money, in wartime when goods are scarce, tends to "bid up" the prices of things, the same as at an auction. Your War Bond will be safe and money, too, increasing in value until the time when you get back $4 for every $3 you invested.

5 The War Bonds you buy will mature in ten years to send your boy or girl through college . . . or to provide for your own security, for travel, or retirement.

6 Every $75 you put into a War Bond today will return you $100 at maturity; every $375 will yield you $500. And if you need to get your money back for an emergency—you can do so any time you wish 60 days after the bonds are issued. War Bonds are really the same as a cash reserve for emergencies, except that they increase steadily in value, and because each one is registered, you won't lose your money through fire, theft, or loss of the bonds.

7 In the years after the war, when better-than-ever farm equipment will be available, your War Bonds will be a backlog for you to renew your machinery . . . to build that new barn . . . to improve your land.

But meantime—your idle dollars can be fighting dollars . . . put every one of them into the fight in the big Seventh War Loan!

Trade your folding money for fighting money!

Put every idle dollar on the line!

APPROVAL FOR BRETTON WOODS PACT ASSURED

By FRANCIS LE MAY

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Overwhelming House approval of the Bretton Woods agreements apparently was assured today. The chamber came to a vote on the most far-reaching legislation for postwar international cooperation yet to reach Congress.

A test late yesterday showed 120 to 18 for ratification, and opponents conceded they did not expect more than 25 or 30 of the 433 House members to vote "no" on the final rollcall.

The agreements, drawn by representatives of 44 nations meeting last summer at Bretton Woods, N. H., propose to establish a $8,000,000,000 world bank for reconstruction and development loans and an $8,800,000,000 fund for international currency stabilization.

"A Swindle and Fraud"
Rep. Sumner (R-Ill.), a leader of the opposition, said the legislation will pass the House but added: "It will be a different story when the bill goes to the Senate."

The first House test came on a motion by Miss Sumner to strike from the measure all reference to the monetary fund, which she described as a "swindle and a fraud." She contended the stabilization effort, as embodied in the agreements, would "finance currency depreciation and debt repudiation."

After her motion was lost, Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.) who led minority support of the bill, said "it is indicative of a bi-partisan desire to cooperate in effectuating stability in world trade."

The late President Roosevelt last February said Bretton Woods "is the cornerstone for international economic cooperation," and President Truman, in a letter read in the House Tuesday, declared the plan paramount "in establishment of a sound economic foundation for lasting peace."

Bank's Purposes
Treasury department officials outlined these purposes of the agreement:

1. To encourage international investment in productive enterprise.
2. Make long term currency stabilization loans to countries whose currency encountered difficulty.
3. Each member nation would share in the bank risks in proportion to the stock it held.

Uses of Capital
Of the $9,000,000,000 bank capital, the United States would subscribe $3,175,000,000.

- Fund—
1. To stabilize the currencies of all cooperating nations in term of gold.
 2. Progressively remove barriers against making payments across international boundaries.
 3. Provide a revolving fund of foreign exchange to enable member countries to maintain stable and unrestricted currency relationships.
- Each country would contribute gold and local currency to a common pool in the fund. Of the $8,800,000,000 assets the United States would subscribe $2,750,000,000.

CITY HALL CLOCK STOLEN

Harrisburg, Pa., June 7 (AP)—Police Chief Oscar L. Blough has the entire police force—100 patrolmen and nine city detectives—detailed to find a stolen clock. The large electric time piece was taken off a wall in city hall directly across the corridor from police headquarters.

Chapter 19

It was two days before Christmas. No tinsel tree glittered in the living room of the Lambert house. Lucia had told them that she couldn't have the litter on her new rug. Francis would direct no program at the Community Building and give no dance at the clubhouse on Christmas Eve; he and Lucia were leaving today.

Kay trembled with eagerness and anticipation, impatient for them to be gone. For she had plans, too. She meant to call Rex Warner and ask him to have Christmas dinner with her.

They'd have dinner at noon; in the morning they'd make several visits over Lovell, beginning with the hospital. Oh, if he'd only accept her invitation. . . .

At last they were gone. Lucia and Francis. Kay thought as she kissed her father: I hope he'll come back with the worry gone from his face. Perhaps they'll grow closer while on this trip alone.

After a few moments she lifted the telephone. Her hands were trembling, though her voice was steady when she gave his number. She knew that number perfectly; she had whispered it over and over many times.

Yes, Dr. Warner was in, the office girl told her. Yes, she might speak with him.

Then his voice. Kay held her breath ecstatically for a moment. She had planned a casual speech, but suddenly it was gone from her mind and she said simply, "I'm alone for Christmas Day. Will you have dinner with me?"

There was a slight hesitation at the other end of the line, and then Kay caught the note of eagerness in his voice when he answered, "You're a lifesaver. I had only a lonely day ahead."

"Then you might have telephoned me."

"I was afraid I'd interfere. Christmas is usually a day of family gatherings."

"Not in my family," she assured him. Then she added, "If you can get here about seven o'clock, I'd like for you to go with me to make some visits over the village. Then we'll have dinner at noon. Lucia's club is having a tree at night."

"Splendid. That will give us more time—together. And thanks a lot."

"Good-bye."

"Good-bye, Kay." And his voice seemed to linger over her name.

She executed a dance step and turned to find Liza watching her.

"Oh, Liza, darling," she cried, "he's coming! He's coming!"

Kay leaned closer to the old woman and whispered, "Look in your cup, Liza, and see if he cares for me."

Liza's face beamed. "Yassum, he do. I done looked."

"And is everything okay?"

Liza hesitated and her voice took on a note of worry. "You know I done dropped that cup and broke it all to pieces before I could see any future for you with that man!"

Kay laugh rang out. "Let the cup break! Tomorrow is my future, Liza. Tomorrow is Christmas. With Rex here, and you, and the house to ourselves."

"Yassum. Jest like it used to be."

Babs was displeased when Kay explained her plans for Christmas Day. They were in Babs' living room on Christmas Eve waiting for Ned and Jimmy to arrive to take them to the celebration at the Community Building.

"But, Kay," Babs protested "you promised Jimmy you'd have dinner with him and Mr. Brent."

Kay's eyes lost their joy. "I'd forgotten that date with Jimmy."

You see this is the first time I've had the house to myself and Dr. Warner is alone, so I just thought—" Her voice trailed off miserably. Babs rose and moved to the radio. "It would be nice for you two to get together," she murmured, "but I'd be sorry for Jimmy."

Presently Kay spoke. "Well, I'll break my date with the doctor. Babs," she said, "I can't hurt Jimmy. I'm fond of him. You know that."

Babs caught the look of disappointment in her eyes. "Well, don't be hasty," she suggested. "Maybe something will turn up."

"What do you mean?"

Babs looked straight at her. "You want this date with Rex Warner more than anything, don't you?"

"Yes. Oh, yes, I do."

"Well, maybe I can change Jimmy's mind for him."

They filed out of the house to Ned's car and drove down Lambert Avenue to the Community Building. They found it ablaze with colored lights, gay Christmas decorations, and a tall tree that held many mysterious packages for the wide-eyed children who had never really believed that there would be no tree tonight.

Everyone joined in the singing of the Christmas carols. Ned made a satisfactory Santa Claus with Kay and Babs and Jimmy helping to distribute the varied and numerous gifts.

Not one person asked Kay about Francis. She didn't know whether to feel relieved or not. Perhaps, she thought, it's just as well that he isn't here. The people would find it hard to associate the Christmas spirit with him, what with the closing of the kindergarten and the

FINANCE PROBE READY TO START

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—The General Assembly's joint state government (research) commission was ready Wednesday to begin a Commonwealth inquiry into operation and management of finance companies dealing in consumer credit.

Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, House Republican leader, was named chairman of the commission's committee to conduct the investigation. His appointment was announced Tuesday, shortly after the agency met and re-named Ira T. Fiss, speaker of the house, commission chairman.

At the same time Senate President M. Harvey Taylor was elected vice president, while Lichtenwalter was re-named secretary and A. Alfred Wasserman, counsel.

The finance inquiry was ordered in a resolution approved by the 1945 legislature upon recommendation of Governor Martin who said he had reports of "sharp practices" by some firms.

The legislators, in directing the investigation declared "returning veterans may become the victims of designing manipulations of dishonest finance companies and other dealing in consumer credit."

TURNPIKE MISHAP
Somerset, Pa., June 7 (AP)—Three persons were injured, two seriously when their car rolled over a 50-foot bank on the Pennsylvania turnpike 10 miles west of Somerset Tuesday.

Most of the parents went home early, their children clasping their toys lovingly. "Thank you, Santa Claus," they all chimed.
